Kabinett wines from Maximin Grünhaus are regarded worldwide as masterpieces of elegance: finely fruity, carried by lively acidity, and in perfect balance of sweetness and minerality.

In the heart of the historic abbey cellar, our Große Lage (Grand Cru) wines mature naturally in traditional Fuder casks. The most outstanding cask of Kabinett is bottled separately for the auction, unmistakably marked with its individual Fuder number. This year, the choice fell on the 2024 Abtsberg Kabinett No. 27.

A wine with juicy citrus fruit: mandarin, lime zest, and white grapefruit, accompanied by subtle yeast creaminess, salty notes, and herbal-spicy depth. The acidity is precise and vibrant, the structure clear and balanced. The finish is long, mineral-driven, and marked by stylish complexity.
